I am Miki. I'm fourteen years old. I like volleyball and koto. I'm a member (A) the volleyball team at school. We practice volleyball after school from Monday (B) Thursday. On Tuesdays, we practice (C) the morning before class, too. I usually get up at seven, but on Tuesdays, I get up at six. The training is hard, but I enjoy ①(play) volleyball with my teammates.

On Fridays, I take koto lessons at a music school. The koto is a traditional *musical instrument. It is about one hundred eighty centimeters long and has thirteen *strings. I feel relaxed when I listen to it. My koto teacher is Ms. Suzuki. She is my aunt and twenty years older than I. She is a good player and she sometimes goes to America ②to play it. My friend Mary is also her student. She is (D) Britain and goes to a college in Japan. She says that learning ③Japanese culture is interesting. She practices the koto every day. Ms. Suzuki and I don't speak English well. So in koto class, Mary sometimes teaches us English. ④It (talk / fun / to / each other / is / with) both in Japanese and English.

In ⑤August, Mary's parents will come to Japan. Mary has not ⑥(see) ⑦them since she came to Japan. ⑧She is looking forward to seeing them. Now we are planning to play the koto for them. So we need to practice harder to play some Japanese songs. She is sure that they will like the beautiful sound.
