When you hear the word “tea”, what kinds of tea do you think? There are many kinds of tea in the world, such (A) black tea, *oolong tea, *herbal tea, green tea, and so on. Black tea is ①(call) “koucha” in Japanese. It is well ②(know) that the British people enjoy ③(drink) tea when they take a break, and English tea is delicious. You may think that the British people drink tea the most around the world and they were the first people to drink tea in old times, but ④(that) is not right.

⑤(In fact), the Chinese drink more tea than the British. One study in 2013 shows how much tea people drank in a year in each country. *According to the study, China was the top country of tea *consumption in the world, and Britain was the eighth. Also, it is said that the Chinese were the first to start the *custom of tea drinking. Though it is only about 400 years since Europeans first drank tea, the Chinese have had it (B) more than 4,000 years.

In the beginning, there were no tea trees in China. The *seeds were ⑥(bring) from India. The British also discovered tea after they went to India and Sri Lanka. Indian and Chinese tea trees are the ⑦(same) trees, but they look very different. The Chinese tea trees are much  than the Indian trees. They are usually about one meter tall. *On the other hand, the Indian tea trees are about six meters tall. ⑧(Their leaves become as big as a human hand) if they are not picked early. But they are usually picked before they become too big because smaller and softer leaves make the best tea.

Green tea and black tea are made (C) the same kind of tree. When we make green tea, the *fermentation of the leaves is stopped at an early stage. Then the color is kept green. When we make black tea, the leaves are *half-dried in the sun and covered (D) a wet cloth. Then the color becomes dark. The difference between the two types of tea is how the tea leaves are used.

⑨(I think ( us / it / to / important / is / for / know ) the history of tea.) As you know, here is Uji-city. It is very famous for many kinds of tea, so ⑩(how about checking the differences?) I'm sure that they make you more interested in tea. Next time ⑪(I am going to visit some tea shops and ask some questions about Uji-tea,) because I like to study the history of tea.

※ oolong tea ウーロン茶    herbal tea ハーブ茶    According to ～によると
consumption 消費    custom 習慣    seeds 種    On the other hand 他方では
fermentation 発酵    half-dried 半乾燥した
